Fund To Rs. 15cr A Year

Finance Dept Opposed Move, Citing Fiscal Situation

New Delhi: With the Delhi assembly elections just four months away, AAP govt on Thursday increased the MLA local area development (MLA LAD) fund to Rs 15 crore per year. The decision was taken in a cabinet meeting chaired by chief minister Atishi.

Addressing a joint press conference with urban development minister Saurabh Bharadwaj, Atishi said the cabinet had approved a 50% hike in the MLA LAD fund. from Rs 10 crore to Rs 15 crore per annum. The allocation is the highest in the country, she added.

Sources said the move was likely to put an additional financial burden of Rs350 crore on the exchequer. Considering a "difficult fiscal situation" in the state, sources said the finance department had denied its concurrence to the proposal and its views were incorporated in the cabinet note.

Reading out the current allocations in other states, Atishi said, "Karnataka provides Rs 2 crore each every year. Even larger states such as Maharashtra, Kerala and Rajasthan allocate only Rs 5 crore." States like Punjab,

Explaining the rationale behind the increase, Bharadwaj said Delhi experienced a lot of rain this year, damaging roads, parks, walkways and walls. "Due to the increased rain, there are also issues with sewers in many places- they have become clogged or silted up, and new lines have to be laid," he said. Emphasising the importance of the fund in a democracy, Atishi said that it was a crucial mechanism to initiate development projects in constituencies. "MLAs have been regularly bringing these issues to our attention. The increased fund will enable them to quickly provide relief without waiting for long departmental sanctions," he added. The flexibility of the fund allows the legislators to address local concerns promptly, ensuring faster and more efficient responses to infrastructure and development needs, Bharadwaj pointed out. Court orders sugar test and warm water for Amantullah

New Delhi: A court on Wednesday directed the jail authorities to test AAP MLA Amantullah Khan's blood sugar level twice daily at regular intervals in view of his medical conditions related to diabetes. The court of special judge Vishal Gogne issued the directive while hearing an application moved by Khan seeking permission to carry a glucometer and an electric kettle in judicial custody because of his medical conditions. Disposing of the plea, the court also directed that warm water be supplied constantly to Khan, who is in custody in the Delhi Waqf Board money laundering case. The jail authorities submitted that they could provide daily/regular testing of the sugar levels and also give him warm water. The sugar level will also be checked if the accused reports any discomfort and seeks additional testing, the court added. On Oct 7, the same court extended the judicial custody of the MLA after hearing submissions from ED and Khan's co-unsel. The special public prosecutor for ED sought judicial custody and said the agency would soon file a supplementary chargesheet against.

Man held for extortion letter to car showroom

New Delhi: A 27-year-old man has been arrested for allegedly sending an extortion letter to a car showroom in Naraina, where an incident of firing had taken place last month. The accused has been identified as Karan Dhingra. According to police, he was looking to exploit the recent shooting incident of Sept 27, in which three men had fired 15 rounds inside Car Street showroom, attempting to extort Rs 5 crore from its owner. Gangster Himanshu Bhau, operating from abroad, had claimed responsibility for it.

Police said Dhingra used a bike taxi app to deliver the handwritten threat, claiming to represent the gang. The letter, kept in a polythene bag on which "Bhau Gang 20" was written, said: "Ab goli bheje pe lagegi (now the gunshot will hit your head)". However, Dhingra had no actual links to any gang, said cops. Police received a complaint from the showroom's owner on Oct 4. An investigation was launched and two teams were formed. Using technical surveillance and CCTV footage, they soon tracked down Dhingra.

Liquor smugglers attack cops in Bihar

Liquor smugglers in dry Bihar attacked a police team, out to arrest a wanted criminal, with sharp weapons, resulting in critical injuries to a sub-inspector in Katihar district early on Thursday, reports Kshitiz. "The team had gone to arrest Chandan Murmu in Semapur on Wednesday. Smugglers and a few locals attacked the cops before they could step out of the vehicle. Raids are on to nab Murmu, and those involved in the attack," Salemapur police outpost incharge Hari Prasad Yadav said. The attackers even tried to snatch police rifles, forcing the police team to retreat. Sub-inspector Dashrath Kumar was admitted to a local hospital with head injuries, but his condition was stable, Yadav added. This marks the second attack on police by liquor mafia in Katihar within two days.
